Macon 365 is the one I mentioned. <https://www.macon365.com/> If you scroll toward the bottom there's a red banner where you can "submit a listing." (Have not heard back)

- b) The local paper in Peach County (where I live) is The Leader-Tribune. They run a pretty extensive events column. Not sure whether they cover items outside of Peach county, but you can contact them by email here -> news@theleadertribunt.net
- c) The Houston county newspaper is the Houston Home Journal. You can find them on the web, and click submit. <http://hhjonline.com/>
- d) And the Macon newspaper is the Macon Telegraph. They used to be really good about advertising community events for free, but they gave that up a while back. However, you could still place an ad with them. You can find them at www.macon.com and scroll all the way to the bottom, or try the link below.

5) The Critics Corner aka “The Inklings Moment” : Every month one or two of our authors will review something they are working on. The intent of this period is to give the author the opportunity to have other authors read, hear, and comment on what the author is writing. This is meant as a period of encouragement, and of constructive review. What did you like about what the author wrote? What did you learn from what was written? What could be improved upon? This also give the author the opportunity to discuss what is behind what is written. If you would like to be included in next month's review, please contact your chapter leader and provide up to 4 pages of content.

This month in the Macon Chapter we will be reading the latest letter from Bill Peeler and commenting on it. It is attached to the Agenda.
